THE HUN SCHOOL OF PRINCETON PRINCETON, NEW JERSEY

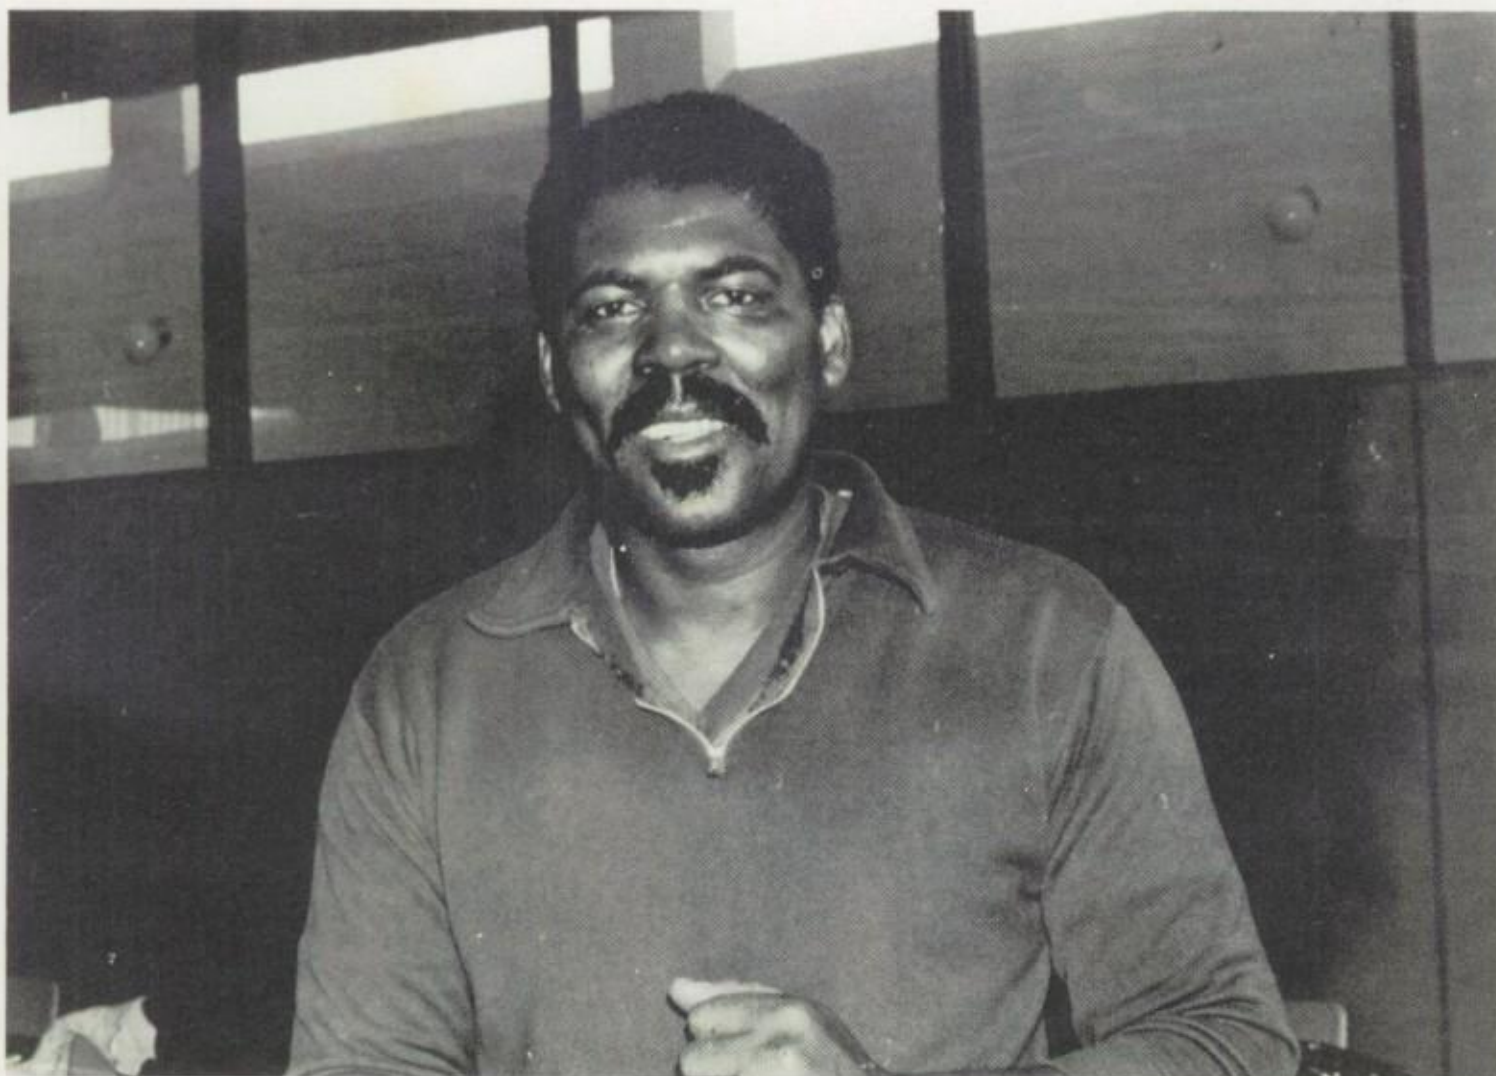

G. Gerald Donaldson, Jr.
Headmaster
Allen R. Kirschner
Head of Upper School

TRIBUTE

One man has made a lasting impression on the Hun community. He is a friend to all, a man trusted and respected for his quiet wisdom, his gentle strength, and his total dependability. When there is a job to do, he gets it done. A testimony to the pride he takes in his work is the ever neat appearance of the Academic Center. For these reasons, and many more, the 1981 Edgerstounian presents its tribute to Mr. Arthur Wright.

DEDICATION

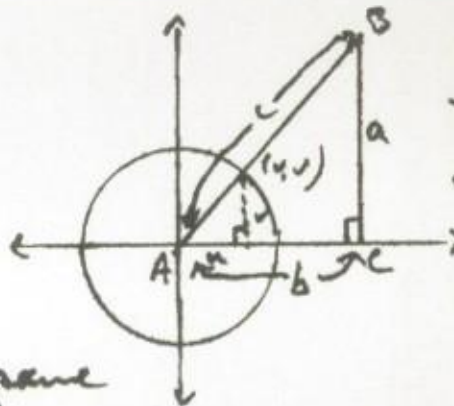

Our lives have been enriched not only by her excellence in the classroom but by her ever cheerful outlook on life. Students seek her out for her guidance and wisdom because they respect her advice. Those fortunate enough to have been in her classes have gained insights into literature, have matured in their writing, and have expanded not only their vocabularies but their intellectual horizons as well.

Because she gives so much in her teaching, because of the many lives she so meaningfully touches, because of the joy her presence creates, we, the staff, hereby dedicate the 1981 Edgerstounian to Mrs. Nancy R. Gregory.

ADMINISTRATION FACULTY STAFF

Shakespeare's novel has been described as a powerful symbolism and spiritual allegory.

Les Méditations poétiques de Lamartine sont le premier manifeste du romantisme français.

When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
 When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
 When funds are low and debts are high
 And you want to smile, but you have to sigh
 When care is pressing you down a bit,
 Rest if you must, but don't quit.
 Don't give up though the pace seems slow —
 You may succeed with another blow.
 Success is failure turned inside out —
 The silver tint of the clouds of doubt
 And you can never tell how close you are,
 It may be near when it seems so far;
 So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit —
 It's when things seem worst that you must not quit.

The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched. They must be felt with the heart.

I shall pass through this world but once. Any good, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any human being, let me do it now. Let me not defer nor neglect it. For I shall not pass this way again.

No man is an illand, intire of itselfe: every man is a peece of the Continent, a part of the maine; if a Clod bee washed away by the sea, Europe is the lesse, as well as if Promontorie were, as well as if a Mannor of thy friends or of thine owne were; any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in Mankinde: And therefore never send to know
